Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of May 6th in regard to the storage account from the Bekins Moving and Storage Co. Ltd. In this letter you state that my father's account has been practically exhausted.

I have been rather surprised at this state of affairs and so I would appreciate having a detailed statement as to how much has been paid into the account through rentals and how much has been paid out to date and to which firms. I would like to have a copy of this statement at your earliest convenience, and also the amount standing to the credit of my father's account.

After receiving this statement, I will let you know what I will do in regard to this storage account.

Yours very truly,

Takashi Komiyama,

Dear Sir:-

As you are aware, we have been paying the Bekins Storage charges from the credit account of your father. These charges are for a piano and stool and two chesterfield chairs which are stored with Bekins Storage under your name and Registration Number. It occurs to us, however, that we have no authority from your father to pay these charges and we think this should be sent to us in order to have everything clear on our files. Will you kindly arrange for this?

It may, of course, be that these articles belong to your father together with the other items declared to us by you in your supplementary registrations of October 28th and October 30th which we have filed both on your and your father's files. These latter items are still at 3154 Vaness Avenue but will, of course, have to be moved when the premises are sold.

Yours truly,

Dear Sirs:

At the time of the evacuation, I had stored with the Bekins Storage Company, two chairs of a Chesterfield set and a piano.

The monthly storage charges on these goods have been paid by your office out of the account of my father, Takahiko Komiyama (File No. 2300).

However, now that we are settled here in Montreal, I would like to have the chairs and the piano shipped out to me by freight, at your earliest convenience, to the address given above. Please prepay all costs out of my father's account in your office.

I am writing the Bekins Co. with similar instructions at this time.

Yours truly,

T. Komiyama
