Re: Mr. Yoshiyo TAGUCHI
Registration No. 03974

Mr. Yoshiyo TAGUCHI did not make any declaration before leaving the protected area. However, on request, a letter was received on June 14th, 1943, in which he states that he has no property left in the protected area with the exception of personal property registered by his father.

The file reveals that he has a Sun Life Insurance Policy #2320438. As this does not come under the control of the Custodian, no action was required.

The Above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

Dear Sir

I received your letter on last Saturday which on your date Jan. 11th.

And you want to know my property and all information of mine, But I had left my property and things with my father's together. And I haven't got any of lease and liability. So I thought I don't need to send this forms, because I have not to write any of information just my address that all so. Because I had my things with my trip.

I am sorry to you I don't give any of complete information of mine.

I am very thanking you for your very kindly attention.

Yours very truly
Y. Taguchi
