PERSONAL PROPERTY CLAIM

(All claims shown are Gross)

Radio Equipment

Claim increased to $85.50

(Transcript Page 3)

Sale Price

$3.

Claimant's original claim was for $78. but on his J.P. form which was undated and not signed, he gave the value as $75.80.

Claimant was a veteran of the last war, having served with the Canadian Army Intelligence Corps in Burma. He stated that he left this equipment at his home in McHardy Street, Vancouver, in the care of his father. His father wrote to him stating that the R.C.M.P. came to his house in 1942 and removed it all but did not give him a receipt for it.

All that the Custodian received from the R.C.M.P. were 2 cartons of sets and parts which were sold by auction for $3. Claimant stated that he dismantled his set according to Government Regulations and placed all the tubes and articles in cartons and everything was placed on a shelf in his room. (Trans. Page 5)

Claimant later stated that the radio parts weren't in cartons when he left them, in fact they wouldn't go into cartons and he thinks the R.C.M.P. must have placed them in cartons (Trans. Page 8). Custodian wrote to claimant asking for the receipt from the R.C.M.P. but he did not reply.

It is possible that the restrictions in regard to shortwave transmitting stations in war-time would have an adverse effect on sale of such parts but claimant stated they were of value to the Government and to any radio experimenters as there was no restriction on building ordinary receiving sets during the war.

It is submitted that these goods sold were sold for their fair market value.

In view of the evidence of the claimant that certain of these goods could not be in these cartons, it is submitted that the Custodian had no record of these goods and therefore is not responsible.

THE JURY, the claimant herein, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

EXHIBIT EXHIBITION OF MR. BROWN:

Q. I understand that you are a veteran of this war, are you? A. That is true.

Q. You were in Burma for some years?

A. That is right.

Q. With what force? A. The Special Force,
Canadian Army Intelligence Corps, and I served under Headquarters.

Q. While the matters you are going to discuss were being dealt with you were not in the country, you were away at that time? A. No, I was still here.

Q. Is this your signature on this Personal Effects Claim? A. Yes.

Q. Are the facts stated therein correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Your claim is in respect to a certain amount of radio equipment, is it not? A. Yes, sir.

(PERSONAL EFFECTS CLAIM FORM, MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 1)

THE SUB-COMMISSIONER: What branch of the Service were you in? A. The Canadian Intelligence Corps.

MR. BROWN: I would ask my friend to file
the Analysis of Personal Property Claim.

(ANALYSIS OF PERSONAL PROPERTY CLAIM, MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 2)

MR. BROWN: I have here a copy of Exhibit 2, and that, under the column, "Details of Claim" lists a number of items of radio equipment. Are these the

J. Lee,
Gen. M.

Q. When did you send them back? A. Approximately as near as I can remember sometime in 1943, within a month or two of the time I received the notice.

Q. Is this the letter you are referring to here, dated February 26th, 1943:

"On January 13th we forwarded you three copies of the 'J.P.' Declaration form, requesting you to fill up the forms and return two copies to this office. So far we have had no reply.
Will you please, immediately on receipt of this letter, fill up, sign, have witnessed, and return either two copies of the form sent to you on January 13th, or if you have no property remaining in the 'Protected Area', the yellow 'No Property' card enclosed herewith.

Your prompt attention to this matter will be much appreciated."

Q. Did you receive the original of this letter?

A. Yes.

Q. Now, my information is that the Custodian never received any J.P. Form signed by you.

MR. BREWSTER: You had better put it a little more clearly. He received an unsigned and undated form -- isn't that your information? There is a little ambiguity there.

MR. CHRISTIAN: My information, Mr. Lee, is that the Custodian only received an unsigned and undated J.P. Form. Now, have you any comments in regard to that? A. Well, I signed and sent the forms

J. Lee,
Re-exam.

1 I can remember.

2 Q. Then I notice that the items set out in that
3 form, which is Exhibit 3, while they roughly corres-
4 pond they do not exactly correspond with the claim.

5 Is there any reason for that? A. Yes, the reason
6 is that at the time I was single and I got married and 7 went overseas and came back and all my personal papers
8 and so on I couldn't find -- I couldn't find the 9 original form so naturally I just had to go by my 10 memory.

11 Q. You filled in Exhibit 3 from your memory?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Did you later find the list upon which you
14 based your claim or how did you get a little more 15 detail in your claim today? A. In the J.P. Form I

16 sent the Customs I listed the main items and there
17 was miscellaneous there.

18 Q. That is your writing in it? A. Yes.

19 Q. Apparently you just said "radio equipment,"
20 including --? A. Yes.

21 Q. The only point I am interested in is how 22 did you later get a rather more complete list of the 23 26 items that are in your claim form? A. Well, I
24 was going over everything that I had. In fact there 25 is a lot missing from that.

26 Q. Now, my friend asked you about some 27 correspondence. You did write to the R.C.M.P. on the 28 28th of January, 1947, inquiring about these things, 29 and I see here a letter addressed to yourself from 30 the R.C.M.P. dated February 4th, 1947, which says:

12.
J. 14a,
15-22a.

2 "The list of articles taken from your premises at 3 4000 Broadway Street, does not correspond in detail
4 with the articles referred to in your letter --"
5 and so on. Did you receive that letter from the 6 R.C.M.P.? A. Yes.

7 Q. And apparently it was after that the 8 other correspondence referred to by my friend took 9 place? A. Yes.

10 RE-OPENED EXAMINATION BY MR. CHRISTIE

11 Q. In the unsigned J.P. form you put in 12 a value of $75.00? A. Yes.

13 Q. That was in the year 1945? A. That 14 is right.

15 Q. And those goods were sold in the year
16 1945? A. I am not positive.

17 Q. Your honour, I tender as Exhibit 4 the 18 Auctioneer's receipt.

19 (AUCTIONEER'S RECEIPT, MARKED EXHIBIT NO. 4)

20 MR. BROWN: They are described as two 21 cartons of parts.

22 MR. CHRISTIE: Yes. Then I tender the 23 Personal Property Summary as Exhibit 5.

24 (PERSONAL PROPERTY SUMMARY MARKED EXHIBIT 5)

25 MR. BROWN: It says the "Goods in J.P.
26 Declaration", and lists a number of them, but doesn't 27 point out the J.P. Declaration is in general form.
28 There is a statement here "It is not known that the 29 two cartons surrendered to the R.C.M.P. contained 30 the goods listed in claim."

MR. CHRISTIE: Your honour, it is submitted

1 that these goods sold were sold at their fair market
2 value. In view of the evidence of the claimant
3 that certain of these parts could not be in these
4 crates it is submitted that the Custodian had no
5 record of these goods, and therefore is not responsible.

6 MR. BARNES: I do not suppose it is necessary
7 for me to comment on the defence at this stage.
8 It seems almost sufficient to me.

9 MR. CHANDLER: I understand we are only 10 indicating what the defence may be in Vancouver, and 11 I am only trying to do that.
