Mr. Otokichi OSAKA,
Registration No. 10777,
11 Mile Camp,
Hope, B.C.

Dear Sir:

Thank you very much for your letter dated January 19th, advising us that both you and your wife registered your property with the Custodian. We have the forms filled in by your wife at Hastings Park on April 20th in which she declared furniture and household effects left at 209. No. 3 Road, Eburne, but we can find no "JP" form filled in by yourself. As a separate declaration is required by each person, we should be glad if you would kindly fill up the "JP" forms sent to you on January 13th. If you have no property remaining in the Protected Area except the furniture listed by your wife, there is no need to write out the list a second time. It will be sufficient if you will fill up the first part of the "JP" form, sign the form at the end, have it witnessed and return two copies to us.

Yours truly,

D. M. Chope.

Your reply by return mail will be appreciated. In this connection, we are enclosing herewith a stamped addressed envelope.
