Dear Sir:

We acknowledge receipt of yours of the 1st inst., also yours of the 26th of January last in respect to your loan to the Terminal Lumber and Fuel Company, Foot of Commercial Drive, of $75.00.

In reply we wish to say that in filing J.P. form of information one of the partners mentioned that the Company owed you $75.00, hence our letter of the 19th of January last to verify same.

The affairs of the Company are such that it seems unlikely that there will be anything with which to pay creditors. However, we have your claim on file and it will be accorded the same attention as all other similar claims lodged against the Company.

We have no funds on hand belonging to the Company at the present time.

Under the circumstances there will be nothing further to report to you for the present.

Yours truly,

A. McAlister,
Claims Department.
