Dear Sirs: —

I received your letter of the 9th, for

I don't quite understand what this

Anyway, I do not know the person by the name of Mr. Matsui Tanaka, who as you has stated, he is being lodged with the Custodian.

I am,

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter of February 12th in which you deny the claim made against you by Matsu Tanaka in the amount of $80.45.

For your information, Mr. Tanaka was formerly the owner of the Steveston Hardware Company and was also a fish dealer at Steveston and, as you used to be a fish buyer, I should imagine that it was during this point in your career that you became indebted to Mr. Tanaka. If this clears the matter up and if you now recognize the debt, please communicate with us to that effect.

We would be obliged if you would fill in the registration forms sent to you on February 17th at your earliest convenience.

Yours truly,
