Dear Sir: Re: Policy Number 8803100

We duly received premium notice relating to the above-mentioned policy and have forwarded same to Mr. Koso ARAI, P.O. Box 218, Grand Forks, B. C., for payment.

In Mr. ARAI's letter dated May 22nd 1945, he wrote as follows:

"Therefore, I would like to have you send all the money credited to me on your account. We will, in future pay the insurance premiums ourselves direct so would you kindly forward the insurance premium books at the same time."

In accordance with his request we forwarded to him all funds on hand in his account with the Custodian and also his premium receipt book in connection with policies M6355246, M4038358, M5917296, M5322306, M6685583 and M3578255.

Yours very truly,

Dear Sir:

With further reference to your letter of March 22nd 1945, in which you stated that you would be paying all future premiums direct in connection with various policies relating to yourself and other members of your family, we are now enclosing herewith notice in connection with Policy number 8803100.

Relating to this premium, which falls due on May 15th 1945, we wish to advise you that you have until June 14th 1945, to make this payment.

We have notified the Prudential Insurance Company that you will be making all future payment to their office and you will, therefore, be receiving these notices direct and not through this office.

Yours truly,

W. J. Johnston,
Administration Department.

We are in receipt of your letter of March 11th.

We have today made payment to the Prudential Insurance Company, 470 Granville Street, Vancouver, in the sum of $90.78 which covers the premiums on the above numbered policies up to and including the month of August, 1943.

The Insurance Company advised us that they had sent your premium receipt book to yourself, and if you wish to send this on to us, we will take care of payment of your premiums so long as you have sufficient funds here with which to pay them.

We have charged the sum of $90.78 to your account in this office.

Trusting this arrangement is satisfactory to you, we are

Yours truly,
