Dear Sir:

Acknowledge receipt of yours of the 22nd inst.
re: the various claims charged against me.

1. Peace Cleaners$183.35

With regard to this claim, I wish to acknowledge that this account is still outstanding. Prior to the war, I had been paying them monthly instalments but after my business had been abruptly curtailed, I was not in a position to settle this account. At the present time, circumstances are such that I see no possibility of settling this account.

2. Eccles Realty Co.$405.00

I wish to state that this account had been settled with Mr. McKay, the owner of the building, prior to my evacuation. I have written to Mr. McKay directly, requesting him to notify you that this account had been settled as I have his receipt for same.

3. Komura Bros.$ 19.24

I wish to deny this claim as I am sure that I had settled this account with them prior to my evacuation.

4. B. C. Telephone Co.$ 6.72

I cannot understand this claim as I am sure that I had paid all my bills with the Telephone Co.

5. Walburn Neon Ltd.$ 85.80

*During party
APR 17 1968*

This claim is ridiculous as I never had any Neon signs in front of my shop. They must be mistaken with another establishment having the same name as me. As I mentioned before, I never had any business dealings with them, and so I absolutely deny this claim.

Therefore, with regards the five claims, I can only acknowledge the first claim with the Peace Cleaners and not the others.

Yours truly,

Suyeichi Nakamoto

Dear Sir:

Replying to yours of the 27th of May, 1944,
we note what you have to say regarding the claims lodged against you. We have so informed your creditors.

We have had a call from Mr. McKay and have also had a copy of the letter written to you by the Eccles Realty Co. Mr. McKay is very definite that you have not settled with him. However, as you are in direct touch with him doubtless you will be able to arrange this matter between you.
