This person has been registered in the National Registration as SHOJI KONDO which he claims to be a mistake. Signature of National Registration card is in Japanese and not very clear. Dear Madam:-

Our enclosure, being copy of a letter to Mr. Shoji Kondo, addressed to you at Slocan Extension in March, has been returned "Not called for". From it you will see that we were unable to find your belongings at 121 Heatley Avenue and have, therefore, referred to Mr. Shoji Kondo.

We have received no answer from this gentleman and are again writing to him. We doubt if he will be able to help us at this late date.

Re: Masaya KONDO. Reg. #05704.

I think it is quite clear from this file that we may forget about the belongings of Mrs. Tashiro ARANO, which you could not find at 121 Heatley Avenue, but Mr. Masaya KONDO has now declared a Tobacco Shop Case and Soda Fountain stored at 121 Heatley Avenue.

Were not these the premises belonging to our friend Mr. Tashiro, and would these things have been moved with his belongings?
