Dear Sirs:

Many apologies for not having replied to your previous letter but at the time I was ill and the papers to fill in were misplaced.

Last year, at vacation time I filled in the enclosed card. As I was requested to act as interpreter for other families I was quite busy and took it for granted I was supposed to keep the card till further notice. I have had it with me ever since and so am forwarding it to you now.

Sincerely yours
H. Kusano.
