Registration No. 03051,

Dear Sir:-

We have made a further attempt to find for you the boxes of books and dishes recently requested but regret that we cannot lay our hands upon them. They were probably moved to our warehouse with the effects of another Japanese since they were not marked with your name and were not declared to us by you. Our warehouse is at present packed full and it is very difficult for us to sort out your belongings. We are, therefore, doing nothing further for the time being except to send you our cheque for $8.43 being $2.99 part refund of B. C. Electric security deposit and $5.44 refund of 1% wage deduction for the first half of 1941.
