Dear sir:

Will you kindly grant me permission to send money to my son, Susumu Fukusaka now residing in Japan. One of my daughter there is at present ill and we feel that they need money desperately. Although we have been sending parcels to them quite frequently, they have wrote that they are short of cash on account of her sickness.

I understood from the Bank Manager that I must get your permission before they could take it exp.

We do appreciate it if you will do this as soon as you could manage.

Yours very truly,

Kaemon Fukusaka.
