LIABILITY SUMMARY

File No. 14658

July 24, 1946.

RE: YOSUO OMOTO, Reg. No. 00570

There is a claim on file against the above by the G. H. Cottrell Storage Co. for a few odd pieces of machinery left there. These storage charges amount to $15.00 as of May 2/46. This so called machinery has no value and I informed the G.H. Cottrell Ltd. that it may be considered abandoned as OMOTO has failed to respond to our advice on the subject nad has since been repatriated to Japan.

There are not other claims on file.

The above summary is certified to be in accordance with the information on file.

I would like to know whether you have received my letter which was sent on November 1944. I have asked you to send the beds and the goods which wasn't on the sales lists you've sent us. We are very anxious to hear from you what you have done with them or whether you are sending them. We will pay the cost.

The goods were in 315 Powell St. when you moved the others to be sold. We have the owners letter saying that you have taken every list out and there wasn't any thing missing before. I've written on the first letter every article of the goods and describe how it looks like.

MEMORANDUM

File Nos. 14658
7258

June 13th, 1946.

TO: The File

FROM: Mr. G. B. Spain

RE: Yasuya OMOTO, Reg. No. 00570

The above mentioned person left with G. H. Cottrell Ltd. Storage, 3 bundles of machinery on which unpaid storage charges in the sum of $10.00 are owing.

In company with Mr. W. Ellis, I examined this so called machinery and found it to be:

- 1 Old wood pulley
- 1 Old iron pulley and wheel
- 1 Bundle old steel shafting 4' long

These articles have practically no value and if sold at auction would not cover hauling expenses. Mr. OMOTO must have been fully aware of the value as it is noted that he had the more useful articles shipped to him.

The articles left with G. H. Cottrell Ltd. have therefore been abandoned.
