Dear Sir:-

I have written you sometimes ago that I will be delayed in replying your letter of the June 25th.

I am sure I completed the said "GP" forms while I was detained at the Angler Internment Camp. However I have no property remaining in the Protected Area - my home in Vancouver. Surely the Custodian at Angler would know of my ~~former~~ completing the said forms.

Trusting that I have not kept you waiting too long.

Sincerely

Isamu Sam Tanaka

Dear Sir:-

I received your letter of the 25th ultimo concerning my property remaining in the protected area. I regret to say I am at a loss as to my properties as it has been over an year since leaving for East. Therefore I would appreciate very much if you will give me a little time in investigating this matter.

In the meantime, I will write my sister as to my belongings noted in the Custodian and let you know complete particulars as soon as possible.

Yours very truly,

Sam Tannenbaum
