MEMORANDUM - FILE

Re: Miss Teresa Chira KURISU, No. 01442

The piano and bench referred to in JP registration form of the above, and as stated in our memo of January 15th, is now in the care of Miss Dorothy Clark, Suite 1 - 1247 Burnaby Street, Vancouver,

We have investigated these chattels and consider the present place of storage most suitable. Miss Clark, however, expressed the desire that in the event of a decision being reached re the sale of the piano and bench, they be removed prior to sale to the Custodian's central storage as it is not desirable to have prospective buyers come to her suite.

All communications re the piano and bench are to be addressed in the first place to Mrs. Bettin, Suite 7 - 1260 Barclay Street, Vancouver, telephone PA 0101.

any inconvenience to you by not notifying you about moving the pictures here, but not hearing from Miss Kurisu in time there seemed no alternative.

I have not received a reply to my offer to buy the pictures as yet. I will notify

Dear Miss Blank:

Please pardon my delay in not replying to your letter of the 3rd. I have written to Mrs. Bettin today. It is too bad that my letter did not ^{arrive} on time.

In regards to the offer you make of seventy five dollars for my piano, I am afraid it is much too low a price. The piano itself may be old fashioned and big but the quality & tone cannot be compared with any of these newer ones. I do not intend to sell it for a cent less than one hundred dollars so please let me know as to your decision as soon as possible.

From what I heard from Mrs. Bettin, you are a nurse ^{living} with your mother & no children; so I reckon that my piano is being taken good care.

Please let me hear from you very soon.

Sincerely yours
Teresa Kurisu

Dear Sirs:

Would you please let me know if there is a Singer sewing machine (treadle) in good condition for sale among the Japanese chattels now being sold? I have been inquiring in this district among the Japanese but there seems to be noone wishing to sell one. As I wish to have one very badly, would you please let me know at your earliest opportunity?

Thank you.

Miss Chisa KURISU,
Registration No. 01442,
P. O. Box 541,
GREENWOOD, B.C.

Dear Madam:

We have your letter of January 30th inquiring about a treadle Singer sewing machine.

These machines reach our auction room from time to time, but we are not in a position to act as purchasing agents.

You might appoint a friend in Vancouver to buy one for you, or possibly a better suggestion would be for you to consult the Welfare Department in your locality.

Yours truly,

G. B. Spain
Protection Department.
