Dear Sir,

I am sorry I could not answer your letter sooner. In examining the letters ~~and~~ we have received in the past. (File No. B31 Oct. 28 and Oct 31) I have passed over my particulars of property in my father-in-law's name (Tokiosaka Ueda, Reg. No. 02032) and as I guess I cannot ~~so~~ very well fill in the form now everything was taken care by my father-in-law.

Thanking you for your kind request in attention to my property I am returning the form.

Yours truly,
T. Kitagawa

Dear Sir:

Thank you for the kindly request on our property, but I am sorry to say that I have accidentally lost the print form you sent to me and so I was unable to fill it out.

If there is a matter of time from your side, would you kindly send me another. I am sending back the yellow form card you have sent to me.

Excuse me for the delay I have made but if it is possible for another form I have will have the request completed.

Mr. Taro KITAGAWA,
Registration No. 05412,
Bay Farms,
Slocan, B. C.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your letter dated October 13th.

We have the registration forms filled in by your father-in-law but he did not give us a list of any personal property.
However, in the file there is a list of chattels which were moved from the Celtic Cannery to the Custodian Warehouse and this list has been signed by Mr. Tokinesuke UYEDA.

Therefore, if you handed over all your property to your father-in-law it will be sufficient for you to fill up, sign and return to us the enclosed yellow "No Property" Declaration card. We require this in order that our records may be complete.

Will you, therefore, please by return mail complete and return to us either two copies of the 'JP' Property Declaration Form with a list of your personal property or the "No Property" Declaration card.

Yours truly,

D. M. Chope, Administration Department.

Dear Sir:

re: Taro KITAGAWA, Reg. No. 05412 & Tanayo KITAGAWA, Reg. No. 05411

We have for acknowledgment your letter of the 19th inst. lodging a claim of $70.00 against the above named, for funeral expenses in connection with their infant son.

We find on reviewing both files that as far as the files show neither party has any assets. We regret that we cannot do anything to assist you in this case.

We are, however, filing your claim against each parent.

Yours truly,
