File No. 15029

Re: Sanjiro HIKIDA

Reg. No. 05817

This man did not sign declaration to the Custodian, neither did he reply to letters requesting that he report property owned in the Protected Area.

The file reveals the following assets, however:

Radio:

The radio which was reported by the R.C.M.P. as having been surrendered by this man was sold at auction and the net proceeds of the sale - $14.70 was credited to his account. The receipt for this radio was sent to this office by Tadashi KONDO, File 2481, who stated that the receipt had been given to his mother, Sute KONDO. Her file is 6966. Tadashi KONDO requested that the radio be shipped to himself. At that time, we wrote HIKIDA who replied that he had not given the radio to Mrs. KONDO and that he was still legal owner. Letters were sent to Mrs. KONDO and her son, asking if the receipt had been given to her as security for a debt, or sold to her, but no reply has been received from either of these persons. We are, therefore, accepting HIKIDA'S statement that he is still legal owner of the radio.

Life

Insurance:

The Monarch Life Insurance Company recorded Policy 80461 on the life of Sanjiro HIKIDA. No other information is on file in regard to this and this did not come under the control of this office.

Bank

Account:

The list of depositors of the Japan & Canada Trust Savings Co., as at December 31st, 1942, shows the following accounts:

H 1012	S. HIKIDA	$14.01
H 1237	" "	$ 6.48

We are writing HIKIDA asking if he is the man concerned. If he is the man concerned and will send us the pass books, these funds will be credited to his account.

Dear Sir:

There has been received in this office the RCMP receipt given by the police at the time Deforest Grosley Radio Type 1521, Series #1521-1025 was surrendered on your behalf by Rinsaburo KAWAGUCHI.

This receipt came to us from Mr. Tadashi KONDO, to whom it had been given by his mother Mrs. Sute KONDO.

Mr. KONDO asked that this radio be sent to him.

This radio has been sold, in accordance with the Custodian's policy of liquidation. The sum of $14.70, being the net proceeds from the sale, is being held in your account.

Would you kindly let us know if you have sold or given this radio to Mrs. KONDO? If so, we will transfer the proceeds of the sale from your account to that of Mrs. KONDO. We would appreciate hearing from you at an early date so that we may reply to Mr. Tadashi KONDO's letter. For your convenience, we enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Dear Madam:

Your son, Tadashi, sent to us the radio receipt for the radio surrendered by Mr. Sanjire HIKIDA, and requested that we send the radio to him in Hamilton, Ontario.

According to your son, the radio receipt had been given to you by Mr. HIKIDA, and while your son was visiting you, you had given him the receipt.

As the radio was surrendered by Mr. HIKIDA, we wrote him to ask if he had given or sold the radio to you. In reply he wrote:

"Please be notified that the radio was not given or sold to Mrs. Sato Kendo, and that I am still the legal owner of it."

The radio in question has been sold, and Mr. HIKIDA has asked us to send him the proceeds. Before we can send him these funds, we must have confirmation from you that the radio is in fact the property of Mr. HIKIDA.

If it happens that the receipt was given to you as security for a debt, or sold to you, please let us know.

We would appreciate hearing from you promptly, as we wish to reply to Mr. HIKIDA's letter. For your convenience we enclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police passed on to this office the radio receipt, which you had given to that organization.

This receipt covered a radio surrendered on behalf of Mr. Sanjiro HIKIDA. Therefore, before answering your inquiry, we wrote Mr. HIKIDA. In reply he wrote us, as follows:

"Please be notified that the radio was not given nor sold to Mrs. Sute Kondo, and that I am still the legal owner of it."

The radio has been sold, and Mr. HIKIDA has requested that we send him the proceeds. In view of the fact that the receipt was in your possession, we would be pleased to receive from you either confirmation of Mr. HIKIDA's statement, or an explanation of why the receipt was given to your mother by Mr. HIKIDA, that is, was it given as security for a debt, or sold to your mother? We would appreciate hearing from you promptly.

For your convenience, we enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Dear Sir:

This is to advise that the sum of Fourteen Dollars and Seventy Cents is standing to your credit in the Custodian Trust Account. This sum, as you are aware, was derived from the sale of the radio surrendered by you.

You did not sign a declaration to the Custodian in regard to your property and the radio, which has been sold, is the only property known to belong to you of which this office has any record.

The records of the Japan & Canada Trust Savings Company show that on December 31st, 1942, there were two accounts in the name of S. HIKIDA. If you are the S. HIKIDA concerned, and will send us your pass book or pass books, we will be able to credit your account with the amount due you.

It would appear that we have accounted for all the property of every kind left by you in the Protected Area, which vested in the Custodian, and, in order that you may confirm this, we enclose a stamped addressed envelope for your convenience and reply.

Yours truly,

November 4, 1947

Mr. Tadashi KONDO,
Reg. No. 07266,
274 John Street North,
Hamilton, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

In regard to the third paragraph of your letter of October 27, 1947, which deals with two radio receipts and a radio belonging to Mr. Sanjiro Hikida, the statements made in your letter do not agree with the information on file here.

You state that two receipts were taken to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Hamilton which they had to send to the Custodian. In regard to this, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police sent to this office a radio receipt for a radio surrendered by Ritsuro Kawaguchi on behalf of Sanjiro Hikida. The police informed us that you had stated that this receipt had been given to your mother who gave it to you. The police informed this office that you wished to know if you could obtain this radio. The report from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police made no mention of any receipt, other than that for the radio of Sanjiro Hikida.

Upon receiving the receipt for Mr. Hikida's radio from the police, we wrote Mr. Hikida informing him that the receipt for the radio surrendered on his behalf had been turned in to the police by you. We informed him that you had stated that the receipt had been given to your mother, who had given the receipt to you, and that you had asked if the radio could be sent to you. We asked Mr. Hikida if he had sold or given the radio to your mother.

On July 27, 1945, we received a reply from Mr. Hikida stating that he had not given or sold the radio to your mother, and stating that he was the legal owner of the radio. He asked that the funds from the sale of the radio be sent to him.

On August 9, 1945, we wrote to you and to your mother, Mrs. Sato Kondo, informing you of the statement made by Mr. Hikida in regard to this radio. We asked for an explanation of why the receipt had been given to your mother. We asked if it had been given as security for a debt or if it had been given to your mother. We sent you each a stamped, addressed envelope and asked you to reply promptly. Your letter, of October 27th, is the first letter received from either you or your mother since that time.

You state that the receipt for Mr. Hikida's radio was in your name. The receipt we received from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, at Hamilton, Ontario, did not carry your name.

You state that this office was confused because Mr. Hikida was complaining about his radio. Our records show no complaints from Mr. Hikida, and our letter to you, of August 9, 1945, did not mention any complaints from Mr. Hikida. We did inform you that Mr. Hikida had said,

November 4, 1947.

"Please be notified that the radio was not given or sold to Mrs. Sute Kondo, and that I am still the legal owner of it."

You state that Mr. Hikida's radio was in your name and that your mother has told you that cartage of $5.00 was paid, and that you wrote us that Mr. Hikida had not paid the cartage expense. In regard to this, as we have already stated, the receipt for the radio belonging to Mr. Hikida showed that the radio had been turned over to the police by Mr. Hisaburo Kawaguchi on behalf of Mr. Sanjiro Hikida. There is nothing on the receipt to show that you had any connection with this matter at all. In regard to the cartage expense of $5.00, your letter of October 27th was the first intimation this office received that you had any claim against Mr. Hikida. If Mr. Hikida was indebted to you, you should have notified the Custodian on April 1, 1942, when you reported to the Custodian regarding your property. Another opportunity was given to you to report this claim at the time you signed a statement of your assets and liabilities, during the period of your internment. At neither time, however, did you mention that Mr. Hikida was indebted to you. In fact you stated that you had no debtors.

As you are aware, Mr. Hikida has been repatriated to Japan. There are no funds in his account with the Custodian. No action will be taken by this office in regard to your reported claim against Mr. Hikida.

Yours truly,

F. Matheson,
Office of the Custodian.
