MEMORANDUM

Re: Yonejiro TATEBE,
Reg. No. 08201

We have written to the above three times requesting his registration but have received no reply from him.

I am, therefore, making no further effort to get his registration.

Dear Sir,-

In regard to your letter, I am in Life Insurance for ten years.

I do distinctly understand that it is my responsibility to pay my own premiums. Therefore I had it arranged with my Insurance Company last year as a premium-load.

I am in financial difficulty, by growing few acres of sugar-bets. It is quite impossible for me to provide any funds to my credit so that you can take care of my premiums as you kindly suggested.

If my insurance should lapse after ten years, I must be responsible for it.

Kindly send my mail in phone address. It will reach me sooner. I haven't been getting my mails by Mr. N. Perich since July so he doesn't bring my mails home.

Yours truly,
Y. D. Dube

Dear Mr. Gibson:-

In regard to my Life Insurance Policy, I had not asked you to pay my premiums, knowing that I have no funds standing to my credit for you to do so. Besides, my income is very small, not even enough to be self-supporting. I simply cannot provide any funds at present.

My next payment - doesn't due until May, 1944 or by then I will arrange with Insurance Company, either have it Cash Surrender Value or Paid up Insurance. This will relieve you from my problem.

Thanking you.

Yours truly,
Y. Databe.
