Please refer to Custodian Release of December 6th requesting a trunk from 833 - 7th Ave. W. Vancouver. The trunk delivered us and shipped by express by Richmond Transfer Jan. 24th was not the right one, and attached hereto is a drawing of the trunk or box belonging to this man. We will ship as soon as you have located and a truck is available. You will note that the trunk wanted is in a shack immediately behind a house formerly owned by NISHIKAWA, T. of 833 - W. 7th Ave.

S.W.Brereton of Blue River does not mention to whom the other trunk belongs but your fieldman may know. Probably you will wish to make disposition.

Re: NISHIKANA, Shojiro #07217

Blue River, B.C.

Your letter 1st; also letter from Frank Fisher, Blue River Lumber Company, 4th, stating that the above got the wrong trunk:

It seems that someone appropriated this man's trunk and left his things and the attached envelope and contents on top of the box which was sent him. Later search revealed that some of his clothes are still at 833 W. 7th Ave., and if he wishes them sent we will ship them in a carton. Apparently, however, the trunk has disappeared, having been used, possibly, by someone making a shipment, or in some manner unknown to the writer. Extra copy of this letter for NISHIKANA
