Shears.

Dear Sir:

The above mentioned customer has requested we apply for permission to remit $200 U.S. dollars to Japan.

He informs us that he has received word from his family that their home is badly in need of repair and that if authorized, the funds would be used in this connection.

We have obtained permission from the Foreign Exchange Control Board to export these funds provided we have your authorization, please confirm.

Yours faithfully,

D. C. Harris
Pro Manager,

Dear Sirs:

Replying to your letter of the 13th in regard to request for permission to remit $200.00
to Japan.

Orders-in-Council dealing with the control by the Custodian of property belonging to persons of the Japanese race have been revoked and the Custodian will have no objection to the remittance of these funds
to Japan.

Yours truly,

F. G. Shears,
Director.
