Dear Sir:

The B. C. Security Commission have requested that we forward you the sum of $500.00 from funds held to your credit at this office and we are accordingly enclosing herewith Custodian cheques for $500.00 which has been charged against your credit balance.

On March 13th, 1944, we wrote you regarding a cheque which was forwarded to Matsuyo HAYASHI, your wife. We asked that you kindly return the cheque to us but up to this time we do not appear to have heard from you. Please let us know what disposition you have made of this cheque and if you still have it, kindly return it to us at your early convenience.

Yours truly,
