GENERAL EXECUTOR REPORT

File 1562.

Notozuka BABA, Deceased.

Page No. ---

A certified copy of Death Certificate, dated October 17th, 1936, shows that Notozuka BABA died, in the waters of the Gulf of Georgia, on the 31 January, 1936.

Under date of the 17th October, 1936, the Supreme Court of British Columbia, in Probate, granted letters of Administration to Toshio BABA (son) as Administrator.

A letter, dated 15th December, 1942, from the Probate and Succession Duty Office, shows the value of the Estate as filed to have been:

$ 200.00	equity in Real Property, under a Right to Purchase from W. E. Pellard (for $400.00).
$1000.00	San Life Assurance Company policy, paid to the widow (the named beneficiary).

There was no Will and the above letter lists the beneficiaries of the Estate, and their shares, as follows:

Tsuru (widow, now Mrs. E. Kawahara, File 10756)	5/15 share
Matsuyo (daughter, now Mrs. Yasuo Sakamoto, File 11361)	2/15 share
Toshio (eldest son and Administrator, File 2330)	2/15 share
Kameo (son, File 6461)	2/15 share
Minako (daughter, File 10742)	2/15 share
Stephen (son, File 15622)	2/15 share

Three of the above beneficiaries (Tsuru, Matsuyo and Kameo) being of age, have signed an Agreement (dated 6th March, 1943, on file) consenting to Toshio, the eldest son, administering the estate on his own behalf, two (Minako, 16, and Stephen, 13) being under age, could not so sign away their interest.

Real Property Payments under the Agreement for Sale referred to above were apparently completed prior to the Real Property coming under our administration, at which time it was registered in the name of: "TOSHIO BABA, Administrator of the Estate of Notozuka BABA, deceased."

This property was conveyed by Toshio Baba & Trust Co. Limited
 This property was sold by this office, as of the 19th June, 1944, for $200.00, a complete statement of the transaction being mailed to Toshio, on the 27th September, 1944.

Liabilities The only liability disclosed, a claim of $220.15 for doctor and hospital expenses incurred by a neighbour as a result of an accident involving Stephen, the youngest son, was liquidated by regular payments by this office. Cancelled Note (signed by Toshio Baba) is on file under date of 6th July, 1944.
