Dear Sir:

I came to Japan as one of the voluntary repats on the last boat which left Vancouver on December 24th.

Before I left for Japan, I handed my Bank Account Book and my cash to the Custodian. Recently I recieved my cash but have not as yet recieved my savings money. I find myself in a position of great difficulty to survive without it for everything is so highly priced.

Could you please attend to it, and have the money sent to me as soon as possible.

Thank-you.

Yours sincerely,
Chika Uyehara

JAPAN.

Dear Madam:

Your letter of February 27th has been received. In reply, we wish to inform you that the sum of $943.92 was received from the Bank of Montreal on your behalf. These funds have been handed to the Treasury Department for forwarding to you in Japan. We do not know what period of time is required for funds sent from here to reach you in Japan, but we can assure you that these funds are on the way to you. We trust that your money will be in your hands shortly if you have not already received it.

Yours truly,

r. Matheson,
Office of the Custodian.
