Dear Sirs,

Would you kindly inform me if chances are good to go fishing off the west coast around Vancouver. I am very interested in going fishing along the coast which I have wanted to do for quite awhile which will be much better than fresh-water fishing inland as I have been doing.

How will a person be able to get a good fishing boat and equipment quite reasonable and where. Is a person able to get a boat from the government which were confiscated from the Japanese fishermen not long ago. Can one either buy or rent one of these boats on some kind of terms

I am very interested, so would ~~like to~~ you please send me full details and particulars concerning this matter.

Hoping to hear from you soon.

I remain
yours sincerely,
Mr. Carl Modin.
