[1904] B.C.J. No. 51

10 B.C.R. 354

British Columbia Supreme Court - Full Court
Vancouver, British Columbia

Hunter C.J., Martin and Duff JJ.

April 27, 1904.

---

1 HUNTER C.J.:-- We think that we ought not to grant a mandamus against the present Licensing Board because of the refusal of their predecessors in office to hear the appellant's application. At the same time, the Court is of the opinion that every person in the country is entitled to have his application heard; and in view of what Mr. Hamersley has said, that the Board will do that, the matter should be allowed to drop.

No order.
