Re: 2327 Oxford Street.

Dear Sirs:

"I have received your favour of the November 1st, and express my dissatisfaction on the sales of my property, without any consultation, especially in the sales price concern, I never thought that the trustworthy custodian will dispose my property at such a cheap price. Even myself, when I was hurry for evacuation, could have several buyers for more than twice much the value you sold."

Yours truly,

"Tokujiro TAKENAKA"
