Gentlemen:

In reply to your letter of Feb. 9th, 1945 regarding to your attempt of the sale of my property Lot 11 Block H. D.L. 127 Gp 1. Map 1254 in the District of New Westminster. I hereby inform you that I have no intention to sell the same. If the sale is conducted by you as you indicated in your said letter, it is done against my will and without my consent.

I am waiting the Judgement of Court for the legality of Order in Council concerning the sale of our Real Properties. In case we succeeded, I have intention to recover the above mentioned property together with my home 2505 Cambridge St. Vancouver B.C., Lot 877 Hastings Townsite which was sold by you already. I also reserve my right to take other legal course if necessary.

Therefore, for protection of my right until then, I hereby declare I will refuse to accept the proceeds of such sale if any and I will keep the titles for above mentioned properties.

Yours truly,

"H. Ishizaki"
H. Ishizaki.
