badly. In the living room there is only a pedestal chimney which at any time is liable to be condemned by the Fire Marshal. The outside of the building has never been painted and it can only be fixed up by covering the face with shingles or shakes.

"The utmost value that could be placed on this land and structure is $575.00."

While your letter will be kept on file for future reference if required, we trust that with this explanation you will appreciate that the price realized represents the full current value of your property.

Yours truly,
