Re:- File #10353

Dear Sir:-

I wish to acknowledge your letter of January 18th, 1947. In my present circumstances I have been obliged to make use of the cheque remitted to me. I must however, express my dissatisfaction with the manner in which your office has conducted the disposal of my real and personal property, with particular reference to the low price realized on the sale of my house at 1828 Pandora Avenue, Vancouver.

I desire to record here that my acceptance of your cheque is in no way construed as an acceptance of a full and final settlement of my account with the Custodian.

Yours very truly,

"T. SATO"
